

Look at the sentences. Choose the correct option.

1. Bob and Jack are like twins, I can't look like/ tell them apart.
2. You really look like/blend in that famous singer.
3. He count on/comes across as really tough, but actually he is very sweet.
4. I can't tell one from the other/blend in, to me they are just the same.
5. She really blends in/back down well with the locals.
6. She always stands out/blend in a crowd and you can easily find her.
7. He never counts on/back down or gives up, he always keeps on going.
8. I can always count on/look like Lucy, she's always there when I need some help.
9. I had to dress up/stand out for the graduation ceremony.
10. That top goes really well together/ looks like with your skirt.

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb. Don't forget to use the correct tense.

1. I have difficulty _____ them _____. I just don't see any difference.
2. Jane really _____ a young Jane Fonda.
3. He always _____ an impossible person, but he's actually quite reasonable once you get to know him.
4. I can't _____ emerald _____ mint. It's all green to me.
5. Just try to dress more like your colleagues do and you'll start _____.
6. With your new haircut you really _____ in a crowd.
7. Why don't you _____? You know you have lost and can't win anymore.
8. Can I _____ you to prepare dinner? I need to work late today.
9. Whenever I have to meet clients, I always have to _____.
10. I didn't know orange and green don't really _____ well _____.

Answers

1. Bob and Jack are like twins, I can't tell them apart.
2. You really look like that famous singer.
3. He comes across as really tough, but actually he is very sweet.
4. I can't tell one from the other, to me they are just the same.
5. She really blends in well with the locals.
6. She always stands out in a crowd and you can easily find her.
7. He never backs down or gives up, he always keeps on going.
8. I can always count on Lucy, she's always there when I need some help.
9. I had to dress up for the graduation ceremony.
10. That top goes really well together with your skirt.

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb. Don't forget to use the correct tense.

1. I have difficulty telling them apart. I just don't see any difference.
2. Jane really looks like a young Jane Fonda.
3. He always comes across as an impossible person, but he's actually quite reasonable once you get to know him.
4. I can't tell emerald from mint. It's all green to me.
5. Just try to dress more like your colleagues do and you'll start blending in.
6. With your new haircut you really stand out in a crowd.
7. Why don't you back down? You know you have lost and can't win anymore.
8. Can I count on you to prepare dinner? I need to work late today.
9. Whenever I have to meet clients, I always have to dress up.
10. I didn't know orange and green don't really go well together.