

Look at the sentences. Choose the correct option.

1. Do you want to meet up/bump into at the bar after work?
2. I asked some friends over/dropped by some friends, you should come too.
3. I bumped into/went out Jane yesterday at the grocery store.
4. I don't like asking out/going out, I'd rather stay in.
5. I really like Alie. Do you think I should drop by/ask her out?
6. Is it ok if you just drop by/go out for 5 minutes?
7. I usually go out/ catch up with for a drink on Thursday night.
8. I would really love to catch up with/ask over you, but I have to run right now.
9. I'm sorry I'm already up to something/dropping by and can't come.
10. My friend was supposed to come over/ask out last night but didn't show up.

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb. Don't forget to use the correct tense.

1. _____ later this evening? Fancy going out?
2. He quickly _____ to drop off his stuff.
3. I hate _____ all day, I hope it stops raining soon.
4. I just _____ Lucy, I hadn't seen her for yours.
5. I love _____ on Saturday night with my friends and going dancing.
6. It was nice _____ with you, we should see each other more often.
7. Juli _____ to her place, but sadly enough I was too busy.
8. Ollie _____ for a romantic dinner for 2.
9. We could _____ at the bus stop before we go and have a drink.
10. Why don't you _____ after work?

Answers

1. Do you want to meet up at the bar after work?
2. I asked some friends over, you should come too.
3. I bumped into Jane yesterday at the grocery store.
4. I don't like going out, I'd rather stay in.
5. I really like Alie. Do you think I should ask her out?
6. Is it ok if you just drop by for 5 minutes?
7. I usually go out for a drink on Thursday night.
8. I would really love to catch up with you, but I have to run right now.
9. I'm sorry I'm already up to something and can't come.
10. My friend was supposed to come over last night but didn't show up.

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb. Don't forget to use the correct tense.

1. Are you up to something later this evening? Fancy going out?
2. He quickly dropped by/came over to drop off his stuff.
3. I hate staying in all day, I hope it stops raining soon.
4. I just bumped into Lucy, I hadn't seen her for yours.
5. I love going out on Saturday night with my friends and going dancing.
6. It was nice catching up with you, we should see each other more often.
7. Juli asked me over to her place, but sadly enough I was too busy.
8. Ollie asked me out for a romantic dinner for 2.
9. We could meet up at the bus stop before we go and have a drink.
10. Why don't you come over/drop by after work?